

XMR™ DIMENSIONS™ MAGNETIC RECEPTIVE MEDIA

XMR™ DIMENSIONS™ (Patent Pending) combines state of the art embossing technology with Xcel's proven high performance XMR™ v2.0 magnetic receptive substrate. A wide variety of texture options available such as: Canvas, Mosaic, Woodgrain, Leather, Plaster and many more. Like XMR v2.0, DIMENSIONS is compatible with most printers and ink systems, cuts without edge chipping and has the same neutral, bright white surface.

Retail and other business environments need to make an impact on every possible level. Take your changeable display graphics to a new DIMENSION that you can see and feel.

There are literally hundreds of existing patterns available with low minimums at an affordable price, but you may also create a custom, exclusive pattern to fit your needs. Imagine your logo embossed into the surface of every image printed, like your own personal watermark. You may also want to bring your advertising to life and match the texture of your new product. The possibilities are limitless with XMR DIMENSIONS. Call today for details!
